

Under Construction

Hey Fit Body Family,

Our web team has been working hard to make a new version of the Owner's Site, AKA FBBC University.

The new design is truly spectacular. You're going to find it so much easier to use, you'll never get lost looking for resources, and you'll finally be able to show your trainers ONLY the stuff they need to see.

It's pretty much a total redesign, but once you start using it, it'll feel like home. There's just a few little technical things we need to get out of the way before we launch it..

We won't bore you with the details, but basically we'll have to take down the certification site while we transfer some domain names between the old site and the new site.

Here's the cool part: we set it up so that if any of your trainers are currently going through the certification, they will still keep their progress and they will be able to complete the certification. Please keep an eye on this page, and the Fit Body Family Facebook Group for notification of when that certification will be available.

So really, the only change for you right now is that you won't be able to start new trainers on the certification until November 1st.

Trust us, you're going to be so happy with the new site on November 1st. It's going to be well worth the wait. The new site is so clean and easy to use that you'll never get lost on it and you'll always know where to find the resources and information you need.

Plus, it looks cool ☺

Thank you for understanding!
